

DO NOT CALL

New Jersey's "Do Not Call" law imposes tough restrictions on the telemarketing industry and provides privacy protections to New Jersey residents. The law prohibits telemarketers from making unsolicited sales calls to New Jersey residents who have placed their home and/or mobile phone numbers on the national "Do Not Call" registry, administered by the Federal Trade Commission.

Consumers who already have listed their phone numbers on the national registry are covered under New Jersey's law. You do not have to register separately with New Jersey.

New Jersey's law is separate from the federal law and is the strongest among other state "no call" laws. It allows the New Jersey Division of Consumer Affairs to keep tabs on the activities of telemarketers and arms the Division with strong enforcement powers.

For more information on New Jersey's law, or to file a complaint against a telemarketer who you believe may have violated the law, check our Web site at www.NJConsumerAffairs.com or call the New Jersey "Do Not Call" Action Line at 888-NJNoCall (888-656-6225).

If you have not already listed your phone numbers on the national registry and wish to do so, call 1-888-382-1222 or register online at www.donotcall.gov. Registration is free.
